Dear Mr. MacCauley,

Please find this letter to be an official response to the Missouri Sunshine Law public records request for "all incident reports that mention Phillip Alberternst and were generated in response to an incident involving a gun which occurred on November 11, 2008."

I would be pleased to comply with your Missouri Sunshine Law request, but unfortunately as Montgomery County is a third class county, the County Clerk such as myself, does not keep records of any type of document involving actions taken by law enforcement or the judicial system, criminal or civil, within Montgomery County. Therefore I do not have any information to provide.

Sincerely,

Pamela A. Cartee
